

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE RONDO PRODUCTION LEADS NEW SEASON WITH MEET THE STARS 2021

Penang, MY - The Rondo Production leads the 2021 season with Meet The Stars, an exclusive digital masterclass series featuring the Brass of Royal Concertgebouw Orchestra in April 2021. The digital masterclass series aims to bring renowned musicians and groups across the world to share their insights with the community, and inspire music students with new ideas.

The masterclass series will be held across four sessions on 3, 10, 17 and 24 April 2021 respectively, led by a different member of the Brass of Royal Concertgebouw Orchestra: Miroslav Petkov (trumpet), Martin Schippers (trombone), Perry Hoogendijk (euphonium and tuba), and Katy Woolley (French horn). Each session focuses on one of the brass instruments, in which selected advanced-level music students are given performance feedback and guidance.

Registration deadline for participants and observers is 27 March 2021. Limited participant spaces are available on a first come, first served basis. Classical music enthusiasts and musicians of all levels may register as observers. Learn more about the exclusive masterclass series at <https://therondoproduction.com.my/listing/mts-rco-brass/>.

ABOUT THE RONDO PRODUCTION

The Rondo Production (TRP) is a registered social enterprise that focuses on providing high-quality music education initiatives. The term – Rondo – is a musical form where recurring principal theme alternates with its ‘episodes’.
