FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE RONDO PRODUCTION ANNOUNCES THE RONDOFEST MUSIC FESTIVAL 2021

Penang, MY - The Rondo Production is pleased to announce that the RondoFest Music Festival 2021 will be held from 9 to 12 June 2021. The digital music festival aims to offer a comprehensive learning experience to all woodwinds and brass students, as well as educators. At the same time, the festival has designed various informative workshops and masterclasses for the public, to increase the level of awareness towards music education in Malaysia.

The festival programme is led by its Artistic Advisor, Joost Flach (Head of Wind Studies at the Nanyang Academy of Fine Arts, Singapore), and chaired by its Director, Kenny Ooi (graduate of Yong Siew Toh Conservatory of Music, Singapore). The artists lineup comprises internationally-renowned musicians and educators, as below:

- FLUTE: Ivy Chuang (Hong Kong Academy for Performing Arts)
- OBOE: Bagaskoro Byar Sumirat (Sun Symphony Orchestra, Vietnam)
- CLARINET: Pei-Yun Lin (Taipei National University of the Arts, Taiwan)
- BASSOON: Kittima Molee (College of Music, Mahidol University, Thailand)
- SAXOPHONE: Scarlet Gouk (Eastman School of Music, United States)
- TRUMPET: Hou Chuan-An (National Taiwan Symphony Orchestra)
- TRUMPET: Lau Wen Rong (Singapore Symphony Orchestra)
- FRENCH HORN: Hoang Van Hoc (Singapore Symphony Orchestra)
- EUPHONIUM: Mark Glover (Sterling Euphonium Artist)
- TROMBONE: Darrin C. Milling (Sao Paolo State Symphony)
- TUBA: Shawn Yap (Zurich University of the Arts)

The digital festival expects to welcome over 200 participants and observers for a fruitful musical experience. Registration is now open, with early bird and group discounts available until 21 March 2021. Registration for participants ends on 11 April 2021, while registration for observers ends on 31 May 2021.
